- (b) the 2014/15 funding allocations were provided as follows:
of the £103,930.60 area based Grant, community associations were allocated £19,243, employment and skills focused work £39,000, youth activity £43,403.22, and NG7 management and administration £5196.53. In addition to this other funding of £21, £428 was available for digital inclusion, and £140,000 provided further step in to work programme;
- (c) the presentation outlined the activities and achievements of the work undertaken by NG7 with regard to employment and skills, and youth activities and provision including diversionary and targeted support, including working with community partners such as KK, AWP Asian Women's Project, Sumac in addition to City Council organised programmes;
- (d) many of the supported and provided projects and services has successfully engaged young people in a range of activities from hair and beauty, to sports and community focused events;
- (e) Daryna Grech of KK Sports and Leisure Centre, outlined how providing a variety of activities for young people, including dance, boxing and football, had positively impacted on the area with a reduction in antisocial nuisance behaviour. In addition, where Project workers, who are often able to build relationships with young people, identify there are issues, guidance and support is available.

(B) The Pythian Club

Benjamin Rosser, founder of the Pythian Club, informed the committee that while the Pythian Club was originally an organisation providing diversionary activities, its success has enabled it to now also provide targeted activities, often in partnership with the City Council, Nottinghamshire Police and Lead Organisations.

The majority of activities are based at the New Basford Community Centre and currently includes football sessions hosted by qualified coaches every Thursday from 4 pm to 6 pm, with the young people then taken into other areas of the City to play against other community teams. In addition boxing sessions and American football coaching are also available alongside a mentoring programme for drugs and alcohol support and family support.

While sports teach young people discipline, the club has broader aims to encourage young people's confidence and skills for the best outcomes, including young people to progress and gain support focused accreditations.

The club currently has 250 young people registered, 83 of whom are from the New Basford Area and although the club now operates, or has some involvement in Wollaton, Lenton Abbey, Beeston, Brinsley and Eastwood areas as the success of use engagements is enabling the club to expand.

(C) Hyson Green Youth Club

In addition to the report submitted to the Agenda, Maxine Davis, Manager of the Hyson Green Youth Club, along with Shantay, Ezerien and Kamiya, members of the Youth Club, delivered a brief presentation on the success and popularity of the Youth Club and how Hyson Green Youth Club benefited the greater community. The presentation also outlined young people's aspirations for the future of the youth club as the building was in need of updating and modernisation.

Members of the committee:

- (i) welcomed the reporting of the ventures and organisations;
- (ii) applauded young people from Hyson Green Community Centre for their professional presentation to the committee and dedication to the youth club;
- (iii) suggested that Maxine Davis liaise with community focused representatives of Castle Cavendish and Experian which has large companies, encouraged and coordinated employee volunteering, such as painting and decorating, for community benefit;
- (iv) suggested that, in addition to the support of the Central Locality Manager, Dorothy Holmes, and with the assistance offered from Bill Husband, a business plan and strategy be developed to support the rejuvenation of the Hyson Green Youth Club, possibly from external funding;
- (v) noted that new and emerging communities, such as the Roma community, were engaging with the local community via the youth club which proved it to be a community asset.

RESOLVED for the appreciation of the committee to the presenting organisations and individuals to be noted.

7 POLICE UPDATE

Inspector Bruce Clarke, Nottinghamshire police, introduced himself as the new neighbourhood Inspector, reminding the committee that policing beats included Berridge and Sherwood Wards, but also extended beyond these boundaries.

Having briefly outlined the policing statistics from referred to within the water performance report, inspect the clerk highlighted the following points:

- (a) there has been a decrease in serious crime but recorded violent crime has increased however, this may be as a result of different recording procedures were harassment, including text messaging, is now considered within this category;
- (b) Forest Fields is currently a hot spot for burglary and violence;
- (c) there have been several complaints regarding inconsiderate parking and noise around mosques;
- (d) several issues have been raised regarding people launching items into Sherwood Prison from resident's properties. Police are working with the prison authorities to address this;
- (e) anti-social behaviour has been consistently reported that Pirate Park;
- (f) shop theft is high in In the Carrington area but plan is now in place to try and address this;
- (g) a decision has recently made to introduce a 'demand model' of policing. As a result it is considered that there are too many Police Community Support Officers (PCSOs), so across the county there will be a reduction of approximately one quarter of the current PCOs. Consultation is under way but it is predicted that approximately 57 posts will be removed. Due to the comparatively high reported crime rate of the area, it is not proposed that Inspector Bruce Clarke's Policing beats will be affected at this point and all 19 PCSO posts will remain.

The committee's questions and comments were responded to as follows:

- (h) It's important that local users of Pirate Park assert ownership of the park as it is a public space and those causing antisocial behaviour must not be allowed to intimidate users;
- (i) the recent assault of a pensioner is not believed to be part of a pattern but investigations continue;
- (j) at the Malaki murder trial one person was found not guilty but will be deported.
