Voluntary Sector Involvement:

There are over 500 VCS organisations providing services in Nottingham City.

Nottingham Community and Voluntary Service (NCVS) facilitates two networks for voluntary sector providers who work in collaboration to improve outcomes for children and families.

Working in partnership with the LA, CCG and other providers to:

- Shape and influence local strategy
- Co-produce services
- Deliver local services

The networks facilitate:

- Peer learning
- Best practice
- Safe working
- Consultation and informing

The networks have inputted into a number of strategies affecting children and families in the city, including:

- The Child Development Review and the Children's Plan
- The Health and Wellbeing plan
- The Vulnerable Adults Plan
