

Nottingham City
Youth Cabinet
2012 Report

Uzair Hashmi
Natalie Robinson
Holly White

Where are we now?

Strengths

- Strategic placement
- Consultation with partners

Weaknesses

- Data
- Feedback

Opportunities

- Influence

Threats

- Resources
- Engagement

Community Safety & Positive Neighbourhoods

What does the Youth Strategy say?

- A visible presence on our streets of trusted and known adults
- Extended weekend provisions, especially for the daytime hours
- More young people involved in local community action

What have we done in 2012?

- Respect survey with the Crime and Drugs Partnership
- Contributed to Police & Crime Commissioners engagement plan
- Stop and Search with the Equality and Fairness Commission
- Youth Crime Action Plan

Health and Well-being

What the Youth Strategy says...

- Improve parks and open spaces to include fitness and equipment and structures activity opportunities
- Locally accessible sports and leisure activities for children and young people

What have we done in 2012?

- Consulted on active transport improvements
- Supported Decade of Better Health
- Worked on health with the Equality and Fairness Commission

Education, work & training

What the youth strategy says...

- Improve work-based learning and volunteering opportunities between local employers, schools and colleges
- Provide training and enrichment courses for young people in local settings like youth clubs

What have we done in 2012?

- Contributed to the new Youth Employment Strategy
- Spoken in Council meetings on the value of work experience and STEM subjects
- Promoted One Nottingham aspirations work (Young Creative Awards)
- Ran workshops and focus groups on STEM careers
- Supported the pop-up science shop

Participation forums 2013

Youth Cabinet, Primary Parliament and Youth Council:

Spring term

Community Safety and Positive Neighbourhoods

Summer term

Health and Well-being

Autumn term

Education, Work and Training

Where are we going?

- Developing partnerships with Youth Cabinet, Youth Council and Primary Parliament
- Youth Cabinet membership
- Priorities
- Working with FCT
- Emerging work

What do we want?

- Better engagement
- Increased priority
- Resources
- Support