

To consider motion:-

This Council welcomes the role of the Building Balanced Communities Supplementary Planning Document, to be adopted by Executive Board later this month.

It notes that the lack of planning controls over changes of use from family housing to shared student housing are hampering efforts to maintain balanced communities in some parts of the City. However it welcomes the contribution new purpose built student accommodation is making to bringing student housing back into the open market.

Councillor A Clark