

To consider motion:-

The recent Audit Commission Comprehensive Performance Assessment for 2005 is a disappointment which reflects poorly on the political management of the Council and puts us in the bottom quartile of major local authorities both for performance and for improvement.

Councillor G Culley