

Having considered the implications for Nottingham of the national Conservative housing policy "Strong Foundations", this Council calls for the document to be referred back so that experienced local Conservative councillors can be consulted on its content and be asked whether they agree with it.

COUNCILLOR A CLARK