Dear Sir

APPLICATION TO VARY PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENT LICENCE - EURO BAR, 14-16 BATH STREET, SNEINTON, NOTTINGHAM

I refer to a recent application which has been received relative to the above.

Whilst the Police would be opposed to a 02.00 am terminal hour I wish to advise you that we would be in agreement to the application being granted with a terminal hour of 01.00 am.

I have this morning spoken with John Kent, Clayton Mott and Son, Solicitor on behalf of the applicant and he is in agreement that a 01.00 am terminal hour would be acceptable.

I hope this is of assistance.

Yours faithfully

M L Hemsley

I refer to your letter dated 1 September concerning the above. I wish to object. There is too much provision already in the area, adding to an increasing in drinking at an another establishment wanting to remain open until 2 am. Yet another bar will most certainly be stretching the resources of the city centre police, and generally have an impact on noise nuisance affecting local residents. This type of bar will only add to the already bad reptuation involving a history of ASB and crime.
