

Wollaton East & Lenton Abbey Area Committee Ward Performance Report October to December 2014

Neighbourhood Development
Officer Pauline Dorey
July – September 2014 Data

Introduction

- The WELA ward has a growing diverse community in Lenton Abbey with 74% white British and 6% other white some of whom have English as another language and others of mixed heritage, Black British and Caribbean and Asian origin. The 2012 Insight and 2010 ONS statistics are slightly skewed by the transient student population mainly studying at University of Nottingham.
- Wollaton Park estate has a hidden community of disabled children, young people and older adults and due to caring responsibilities have pockets of fuel poverty.
- In the top 10% nationally of SOA's for Crime and Disorder and Income Deprivation affecting children. However reported crime figures have generally fallen across the ward compared to the previous year.
- Wollaton Park estate have seen a growing number of HMO's and are experiencing increasing problems with their landlords.
- Ongoing car parking and traffic issues across the Ward
