Children and Young People Scrutiny Committee Recommendation/Action Tracker 2024/2025

Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date Date mendations were issued: 12 July 2024 Deadline for response: 12 September 2024 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date recommendations That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education infrastructure that is acressible to revenue in the support infrastructure; that is acressible to revenue in the support of the support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Early Years Entitlement and Wraparound Childcare Provision 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education infrastructure; that is acressible to revenue in the support services and Sarah Nardone, Interrim provision infrastructure; that is acressible to revenue in the support services and Sarah Nardone, Interrim	Dates/Deadlines	Recommendation/Action	Progress/Response
1) That all possible partnership work is done to grow inclusion activity, and the development of schools as welcoming environments to all needs (including through the effective training of teachers and the resourcing of their professional development), to overcome barriers to school attendance in a proactive way that is directly informed by the voice of children and their families. (R) 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		Priority Education Investment
inclusion activity, and the development of schools as welcoming environments to all needs (including through the effective training of teachers and the resourcing of their professional development), to overcome barriers to school attendance in a proactive way that is directly informed by the voice of children and their families. (R) 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date of Meeting: 10 That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim	10 July 2024 recommendations were issued: 12 July 2024 Deadline for response: 12 September 2024 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their provided or provided or on-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date recommendations 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim through the effective training of teachers and the resourcing of their professional development), to overcome barriers to school attendance in a proactive way that is directly informed by the voice of children and their families. (R) 2024 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		•
12 July 2024 Deadline for response: 12 September 2024 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Early Years Entitlement and Wraparound Childcare 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		` ` '
Deadline for response: 12 September 2024 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date 11) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 12) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim Deadline for response: 12 September 2024 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim	12 July 2024
response: 12 September 2024 2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim	Deadline for
2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim
2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		and their farmines. (14)
schools to seek to avoid the need for their issuing of a fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R) 3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		2) That the Council maximises its engagement with all
3) That there is close partnership engagement with the provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Provision 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		fine for non-attendance wherever possible. (R)
provider organisations that deliver mental healthcare services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Provision 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		3) That there is close partnership engagement with the services to ensure that early intervention activity connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Early Years Entitlement and Wraparound Childcare Provision 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim connects children and young people to the support that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim that they need to break down potential barriers to school attendance. (R) 4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		,
4) That further information is provided on the delivery planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim
planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		school attendance. (R)
planning underway for the implementation of the Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		That further information is provided on the delivery Early Help Strategy (particularly on how there will be effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim effective integration with other support services to reduce barriers to attendance, including for children attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date Provision 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations 1) This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim attending schools outside the City Council area). (A) Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations 10 That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 11 This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim		effective integration with other support services to Date of Meeting: 10 July 2024 Date That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations 10 That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education 11 This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim
Date recommendations That a 'One Council' approach is used to establish a solid childcare and early education This is being progressed by Nick Lee, Director of Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim Date 1) That a 'One Council' approach is used to recommendations establish a solid childcare and early education Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim
recommendations establish a solid childcare and early education Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim	10 July 2024	Provision
recommendations establish a solid childcare and early education Education Services and Sarah Nardone, Interim	Date	That a 'One Council' approach is used to	This is being progressed by Nick Lee. Director of recommendations
Director of Children's Integrated Services.	were issued:	infrastructure that is accessible to everyone in the	Director of Children's Integrated Services.

Children and Young People Scrutiny Committee Recommendation/Action Tracker 2024/2025

12 July 2024 Deadline for response: 12 September 2024	city, with proactive work carried out to engage with wider Council teams and foster collaborative working to ensure a comprehensive childcare offer. (R) 2) That work is done to ensure that the needs of individual communities within wards are fully understood, to ensure that everyone does have access to childcare and that there is a full equity of outcomes for families across the city. (R)	2) In order for this to be achieved, an integrated policy of work, that includes DWP, Director of Education Services and Interim Director of Children's Integrated Services with the support of the 3 rd sector, is being progressed.
		3) The 2023 childcare sufficiency audit can be found at: https://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/earlyyears/section-pages/welcome-to-nottingham-city-early-years/childcare-sufficiency-assessment The 2023 childcare sufficiency audit can be found at: Interpolation of the page of th
	3) That further information is provided on the outcomes of the 2023 Childcare Sufficiency Audit. (A)	