Directory of Public Health
Commissioned Services

Introduction

Public Health is a team within the Early Years directorate.

Public Health take an evidence-based approach to improving the health of the city's population - either directly through commissioning health improvement services, or alongside partners and other departments which may have an impact on health.

By identifying the health needs of the population, it is possible to implement or commission services to help address those needs and improve health and wellbeing.

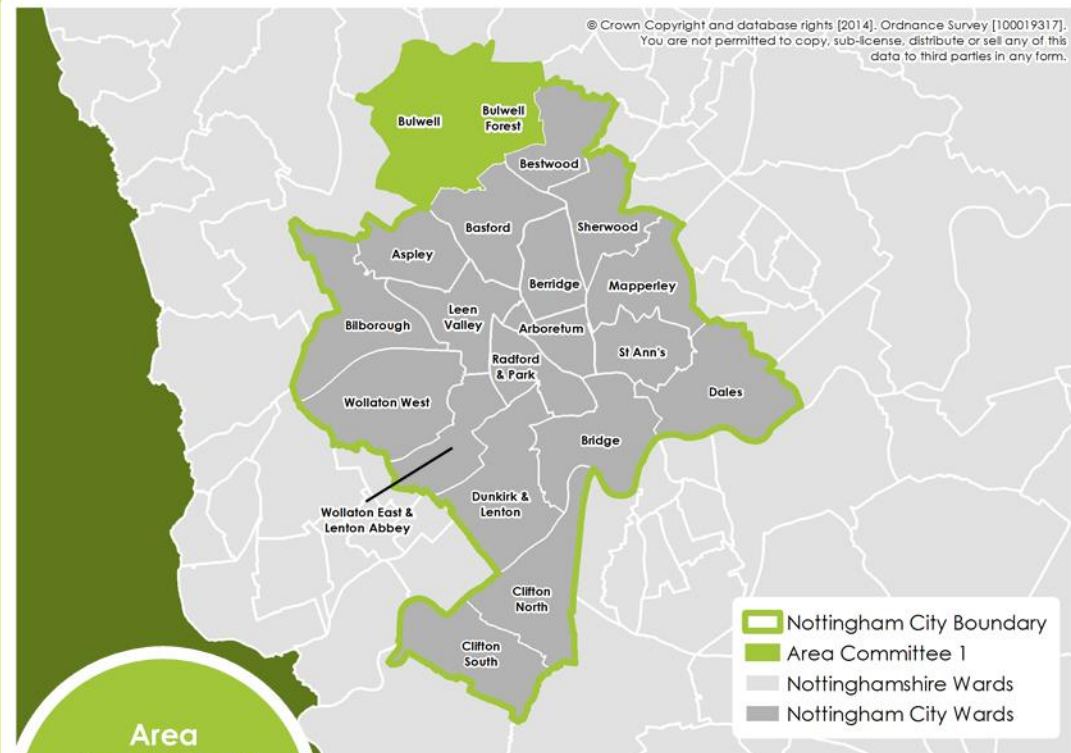

Public Health includes three main areas:

- Health improvement
- Health protection
- Commissioning/services

The following document details the third main area regarding Public Health commissioned services with Area Committee 1.

For further details please contact Michelle Ball, Directorate Secretary on tel: 0115 8765419 e-mail: michelle.ball@nottinghamcity.gov.uk

Area Committee 1 (Bulwell & Bulwell Forest)

There are 8 Area Committees within Nottingham City, each covering a particular geographical area of the City (usually 2 or 3 wards). The membership is all the ward councillors from that geographical area. Meetings are open to the public and appointed local community representatives are invited to attend and contribute, including appointed representatives of Nottingham City Homes, tenants and leaseholders.

The Committees meet to discuss issues of local concern and how to improve their local area, and are consulted on changes which could affect the area. They oversee the spending of their Area Capital Fund. Allocations from individual or joint Ward Councillor Budget allocations to support local ward initiatives are noted. This funding may be divided between funding grants to community and voluntary sector organisations or funding other local community initiatives.

Area Committees usually meet 4 times a year.

Area Committee 1 consists of the wards 'Bulwell' and 'Bulwell Forest'.

The service aims to support all women to develop loving relationships with their babies before they are born and to help those who breastfeed their babies to do so for as long as they want to. Local volunteers lead breastfeeding peer support groups at various venues throughout the City and mothers aged under 25 years (those least likely to breastfeed) can access intensive one-one support from Breastfeeding Peer Support Workers. The team has received accredited breastfeeding peer support training and have all breastfed themselves.

CityCare Partnership also coordinate a "Breastfeeding Welcome" programme which promotes greater acceptance of breastfeeding by helping local businesses and venues to adopt 'breastfeeding welcome' standards. Information

School nurses are specialist public health nurses, who deliver evidence based public health interventions to school-aged children and young people. Together with their team, they lead and deliver the Healthy Child Programme which includes school entrant and Year 7 health assessments, height and weight measurements, HPV (cervical cancer prevention) immunisations, health promotion and drop-ins for advice and support.

As such, school nurses play a crucial role in ensuring that children, young people and families get good, joined-up support and access to available services at the earliest point, from a child's transition into school and continuing through their school-aged years. The service is provided to 57,200 pupils through 16 school groups.

School nursing is a Universal Service, which also intensifies its delivery offer for children and young people who have more complex and longer term needs (Universal Plus). For children and young people with multiple needs and/or safeguarding concerns, school nurse teams are instrumental in co-ordinating services (Universal Partnership Plus).

Priority Issues are based on need within each school group and include:

- School readiness
- Pupil absence
- Excess weight in 4-5 and 10-11 year olds
- Under 18 conception rate
- Hospital admissions caused by unintentional and deliberate injuries in under 18s
- Mental and Emotional well-being (inc. self-harm)
- Smoking
- Sexual health and relationships
- Oral health

As part of the review of the school nursing service, Public Health have developed school health profiles for the groups of schools that the nurses work in. There are a total of 16 school nursing groups within Nottingham City.

These profiles include up to date information about children and young people covering a wide range of key indicators (e.g. demographics, wider determinants of health, health improvement). Using the profiles, you can see at a glance how your school group performs against a wide range of indicators. You can also compare the data with other school groups in Nottingham City via the spine charts.
