

OVERVIEW AND SCRUTINY COMMITTEE
8 NOVEMBER 2017
FLY-TIPPING IN NOTTINGHAM
REPORT OF HEAD OF LEGAL AND GOVERNANCE

1 Purpose

- 1.1 To review how the Council's waste services work together to combat fly-tipping.

2 Action required

- 2.1 To consider the information provided at the meeting and make recommendations, where appropriate.

3 Background information

- 3.1 At its meeting on 6 September 2017, the Committee heard from colleagues across the waste management services of the City Council, and decided to focus the next part of the review on the costs of waste management, the implications for other services, the work of the Waste Advisors, the current campaigns, and the general work that is done to educate citizens on the services available and the implications of not using them.
- 3.2 Colleagues from the relevant teams will be in attendance at the meeting to provide the information requested. The Committee will need to use the information to decide whether any recommendations could be made.
