

These are the three priorities identified and agreed by the NCSCP

- ❖ That children and young people are safe from harm, inside their home, outside their home and online
- ❖ That children and young people have access to the right help at the right time
- ❖ To ensure there is effective partnership working to improve safeguarding outcomes for children, young people and their families

Contextual Safeguarding

- Children may be vulnerable to abuse or exploitation outside their families
- Extra-familial threats may come from school, peer groups or from within the wider community or online
- Children can be vulnerable to multiple threats including:
  - County Lines
  - Trafficking
  - Online Abuse
  - Sexual Exploitation
  - Extremism and Radicalisation
