

HEALTH SCRUTINY COMMITTEE
11 JULY 2019
CLEANLINESS AT NUH TRUST HOSPITALS
REPORT OF HEAD OF LEGAL AND GOVERNANCE

1 Purpose

1.1 To review progress by Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust in improving standards of cleanliness at its sites.

2 Action required

2.1 The Committee is asked to:

- a) review the action taken by Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust to improve cleanliness at its site; and
- b) decide whether it is satisfied with progress or whether any further scrutiny is required.

3 Background information

- 3.1 In January 2017 Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust and Carillion mutually agreed a managed exit from the cleaning contract and that services would be returned in-house by 1 April 2017.
- 3.2 Councillors requested an update on action to improve cleanliness standards, which was presented to the December 2017 meeting of the Committee. Councillors were pleased to hear of substantial improvement in cleanliness.
- 3.3 Professor Mandie Sunderland, Chief Nurse, and Andrew Chatten, Director of Estates & Facilities (both from NUH) will be attending the meeting to talk about the action that has been taken to improve cleanliness standards at NUH sites
